A VALUABLE HISTORICAL RECORD.—The following is a list of the Presidents and Vice Presidents of the United States as well as those who have been candidates for those offices, since the organization of the Government:

1789—George Washington and John Quincy Adams, no opposition.

1797—John Adams, opposed by Thomas Jefferson, who, having the highest electoral vote, became Vice President.

1801—Thomas Jefferson and Aaron Burr, beating John Adams, and Charles C. Pinckney.

1805—Thomas Jefferson and George Clinton, beating Charles C. Pinckney and Rufus King.

1809—James Madison and George Clinton, beating Charles C. Pinckney.

1813—James Madison and Elbridge Gerry, beating De Witt Clinton.

1817—James Monroe and Daniel D. Tompkins, beating Rufus King.

1821—James Monroe and Daniel D. Tompkins, beating John Quincy Adams.

1825—John Quincy Adams and John C. Calhoun, beating Andrew Jackson, Henry Clay and Mr. Crawford, there being four candidates for President, and Albert Gallatin for Vice President.

1829—Andrew Jackson and John C. Calhoun, beating John Quincy Adams and Richard Rush.

1833—Andrew Jackson and Martin Van Buren, beating Henry Clay, John Floyd, and William Wirt, for President, and William Wilkins, John Sergeant and Henry Lee, for Vice President.

1837—Martin Van Buren and Richard M. Johnson, beating William H. Harrison, Hugh L. White and Daniel Webster, for President, and John Tyler for Vice President.

1841—William H. Harrison and John Tyler, beating Martin Van Buren and Richard M. Johnson. Harrison died one month after his inauguration, and John Tyler became President for the rest of the term.

1845—James K. Polk and George M. Dallas, beating Henry Clay and Theodore Frelinghuysen.

1849—Zachary Taylor and Millard Fillmore, beating Lewis Cass and Martin Van Buren for President, and William O. Butler and Charles F. Adams for Vice President. Taylor died July 9th, 1849, and Fillmore became President.

1852—Franklin Pierce and William R. King, beating Winfield Scott and W. A. Graham.

1857—James Buchanan and John C. Breckenridge, beating John C. Fremont and Millard Fillmore for President and William L. Dayton for Vice President.

1861—Abraham Lincoln and Hannibal Hamlin, beating Bell, Stephen A. Douglass, and John C. Breckinridge, for President, and Edward Everett, Herchel V. Johnson and Joseph Lane for Vice President.

1865—Abraham Lincoln and Andrew Johnson, beating George B. McClellan and G. H. Pendleton. Abraham Lincoln was assassinated the 14th of April, 1865. Andrew Johnson became President for the balance of the term.—Journal of Education, Montreal, L. C.

HE KNOWS THEM.—The following most decidedly racy personnel of the late Woman's Rights Convention, is given by a correspondent of the New York Herald, who seems to know them all:

Mrs. Lucy Stone Blackwell is the methodizer and chairwoman. She is quick, and a good presidentess. It's amusing to see her husband play second fiddle. He is a mild, obedient man, and never speaks without consulting his wife. He is called Lucy Stone's husband.

Miss Anthony drives the business, and is as executive as Gradgrind, or any other man. Her forte is figuring. Mrs. Cady Stanton attracts much attention. As a speaker she swings round the circle with ease and directness, and is the best posted woman here. The lady is a good deal of a Democrat, and a staunch free trade man. Her expose of the hypocrisy of Greeley, Wilson & Co. was decidedly scathing. Rev. Olympia Brown, Mrs. Kingsbury, and Mrs. Elizabeth Jones, are minor lights, that fill the chinks. Of men there are three—one white, Parker Pillsbury; one intermediate, Fred. Douglass, and one a pure black, Charles L. Remond. Pillsbury does the writing for the women, Douglass tried to be the big talker, but Remond, the genuine darkey takes the shine out of him—talks twice to his once, and makes a good many good points. There is no insincerity about these folks—they mean precisely what they say.

GOULD & CURRY.—From lately published reports of the workings of this mine we glean the following interesting statistics: The company was incorporated June 27th, 1859. Since then it has produced $13,326,871 15, which was obtained from 230,546 tons of ore, which averaged $59 02 per ton. The total dividends paid to stockholders amount to $3,778,800. The largest yield of the mine for any year was during 1864, when the quantity of ore worked reached 66,477 tons, and the bullion produced amounted to $4,798,124 90. The average value has gradually descended, till in 1866 it only averaged $28 per ton. The principal cause for this decline in value arises from the fact, that in proportion as the working of the mine increased in depth, the more pure the silver becomes, while nearer the surface the proportions of gold was large enough to make one ounce equal in value to six ounces obtained 600 feet deep.

FIRES DURING 1866.—During December there were in the United States 60 large fires, in which the aggregate loss of property was $6,635,000. This is a greater loss than occurred in any month since July, when there were 36 fires and a destruction of property valued at $14,705,000. For the year 1866 the entire number of large fires reported was 501, and the total loss of property $66,410,000, as compared with 354 large fires and a loss of property valued at $43,139,000 during 1865. The losses for 1866 by fires in the United States have been greater than for any previous year, the total for the last twelve years being $280,998,000, a yearly average of $23,416,500. The losses for 1866, it will thus be seen, are nearly three times the annual average.

THE Pope has addressed an invitation to the Catholic bishops of the world to assemble at Rome in June, 1867, to celebrate the martyrdom of St. Peter and St. Paul, and the canonization of several martyrs.

The Daily Union Vedette

Local and Miscellaneous.

ADVERTISERS.—The VEDETTE is the popular newspaper of Utah. Its extensive circulation in the mining camp and city of Montana and Idaho, (which it gives the telegraphic despatches a whole week ahead of the Pacific papers,) makes it the most advantageous medium for advertising in these four Federal Territories.

PROMOTED.—We learn from the Denver Daily Gazette, that Colonel George P. Ihrie, Quartermaster United States Army, stationed in Salt Lake City, has been appointed Brigadier General by Brevet in the Regular Army, for "gallant and meritorious services in the field," as Aid-de-Camp and Inspector General on the staff of General U. S. Grant, the appointment to date from August 1st, 1866. We are personally acquainted with Colonel Ihrie, having formed an intimacy with him in Stockton, Cal., about the the time General P. E. Connor was raising a regiment. We congratulate him on his promotion, and think it could not have been placed on more miritorious shoulders.

PURLOINING NEWSPAPERS.—Great complaint is made by the proprietors of the several reading rooms in this city, that the purloining of newspapers is carried on to such an extent as to compel them to keep a strict watch, and we say, woe be unto the first offender caught.

MORE SNOW.—On Tuesday night the snow fell to a depth of eight inches; it was accompanied by strong wind. The previous mild weather had made the ground too soft to make good sleighing.

NAVAL FORCE.—Section four of article five, of the new Constitution of the State of Deseret, makes the Governor the commander of the naval and military forces of this State.

EXCLUDED.—The interesting history of Mormonism in Utah, is excluded from our present issue by the press of telegraphic and other matters. It will appear to-morrow.

FROM THE WEST.

[From the Sacramento Union.]

San Francisco, January 14.

Stringent precautions are being taken against cholera. Collector Miller has placed the ocean cutter Wyanda under the orders of Dr. Trott, the quarantine officer, who has given orders for stopping all steam ships or steam vessels, except Government vessels, coming into this port from any port south of the southern line of this State, and to allow no one to pass to and from said ships or vessels until permission be given by the officers of health. If any boat persist in passing she will be fired upon.

L. J. Plate, gunsmith, has caused the arrest of W. W. Fox, on the charge of embezzling a large sum of money in drafts received from General Alvarez, near Acapulco, for two cargoes of arms and ammunition landed there by vessels loaded at this city. Both parties are publishing cards on each other.

Harry Maxon was arrested this evening on a charge of highway robbery committed on Kearny street a few nights since.

Advices from Honolulu mention the failure of the Hawaiian Daily Herald, started a few months since by J. J. Ayres, formerly of the Morning Call of San Francisco.

The Avery-Bigler case has been under argument in the United States Circuit Court all day, and is not yet finished.

The jury in the United States Circuit Court have rendered a verdict for the plaintiff in the case of Alfred Borel against Fulton for 28 feet of land on the Potrero.

The walls of Bootz' Hotel, on Pine street, were discovered to be undermined and on the point of falling to-day just in season to permit the walls being shored up and another summer street calamity averted.

[From the Virginia Enterprise.]

San Francisco, January 16.

The steamship America has not been telegraphed yet. No apprehension for her safety will be felt if she does not arrive for a day or two yet.

Private letters received this morning, by the Sonoma, from Mazatlan, mention the arrival of President Juarez at the city of Durango; time not stated.

A large detachment of troops, under the command of Col. Thomas L. Crittenden, left on the steamer Orizaba yesterday for Arizona. The recruits of the Fourteenth Regiment will be left at Drum Barracks, and the remainder of the detachment will proceed to Fort Yuma.
